

PARTNERING FOR SUCCESS

When you enroll as a member of the OpenText Global Partner Program, you are teaming up with the market leader in Enterprise Information Management (EIM). OpenText is committed to excellence in all that we do and strives to enrich the way organizations use information and foster innovation. By partnering with OpenText, you will also emanate these values by becoming a member of our community. As partners, we will work cohesively to implement and support new and evolving industry standards and cutting-edge technologies.

OpenText is dedicated to establishing relationships with the best resellers and technology, services and solution providers to ensure customer success. Together as partners, we work together to fulfill key market objectives to drive new business, establish competitive advantage, and create demonstrable business value.

Program Benefits

The OpenText Global Partner Program is made up of an extended community focused on developing technologies, repeatable service offerings, and solutions that helps our customers maximize their investment in OpenText products. OpenText partners are provided with essential training and product knowledge, marketing and sales resources, and support to help them excel through extending the value of OpenText products and services.

Our different partnership levels make it easy for any organization to partner with OpenText, based on varied levels of commitment and business goals. The OpenText Global Partner Program team works day in and day out to ensure that our partners receive the necessary tools, information, and support required to conquer the endless opportunities available in the EIM market.
